

Electronics and Information Technology Goods

(Requirement for Compulsory Registration) Order, 2012

As a part of National Policy on Electronics (NPE), the activity of developing and mandating standards has been adopted by the Government of India with a view to

- Provide Indian consumers with the right to enjoy world class goods.
- Upgrade the quality of domestic products for bringing Global competitiveness.
- Develop strategy to stop dumping of non-compliant goods.
- For projecting a positive image internationally as a country with quality production of the Electronics & IT goods.

Read More

Electronic products covered under compulsory registration

- Video Games
  - Visual Display Unit
  - Amplifiers
  - Laptops/NoteBooks/Tablets
  - Printer/Plotters
  - Electronic Musical System
  - LCD/LED/Plasma TVs
-
- Automated Data Processing Machines
-
- Scanner
  - Electronic Clocks
  - Optical Disc Players
  - Wireless Keyboards
  - Set-Top Boxes
  - Microwave Ovens
  - Telephone Answering Machines
-
-

News & Events

- DeitY has issued first order under Compulsory Registration Scheme of Department of Consumer Affairs (DOCA)/BIS mandating compliance to India safety standards for 15 electronic items
  - DeitY has issued first order under Compulsory Registration Scheme of Department of Consumer Affairs (DOCA)/BIS mandating compliance to India safety standards for 15 electronic items
-